By Telegram to The Freeman.
Zurich, Oct. 15.—The first public demand for the abdication of the Kaiser and the Crown Prince has just been made at a German Socialist convention at Munich, Bavaria.

BRIEF REVIEW OF THE BATTLE NEWS

Under the impetus of terrific blows on four sectors of the western battle line the Germans are reeling back over a front of more than 100 miles. The latest thrusts were delivered on the northern and southern end of the battle zone, the British, French and Belgians advancing nearly six miles in Flanders while the Americans drove forward on the Meuse river capturing two more villages and a fortified farm.

The attack in Flanders was a shining success. It was delivered over a front of more than twenty miles and unofficial estimates today put the number of prisoners at about ten thousand.

A British fleet co-operated, shelled and silenced the German batteries on the Belgian coast.

The German base at Roulers is now firmly in Allied hands and the German hold on the North sea coast in the region of Ostend has been definitely broken. Another advance in Belgium will render the submarine base at Zebrugge worthless.

The British are only four miles from the strategic German concentration point at Courtrai and now the last line of German defences in France is menaced.

The Lille-Douai line (18 miles in width) is being outflanked from both the north and south.

The French, sweeping beyond Sissonne, are now only 18 miles from the important road junction at Vervins.

(Eight highways converge at Vervins, which is on the Hirson-Guise railway.)

All the way across northern France the Germans are being thrown back upon a line between Douai and Asfeld, on the Aisne.

This line runs along the Serres and Barres valleys.

Steadily and surely the Germans are being thrown out of all the positions which they had prepared to spend the winter in.

Belgium is being slowly redeemed by force of arms. The Allies have now penetrated 27 miles into Belgium and the Germans have forced back 18 miles from Ypres. This battle-wrecked city is now free from artillery fire for the first time in four years.

The Anglo-Belgian army on the Flanders front has advanced within two miles of the German base at Courtrai.

The Lille-Thourout railway, an important German line of communication is under shell fire.

The Belgian and British are in the outskirts of Menin.

In the Laon sector the French are working toward the Hunting line in the district west of Rechel.

Stiff resistance is being encountered.

There is a temporary pause in the big scale. British operations on the Cambrai front.

1,250 DEAD IN FOREST FIRES

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Duluth, Minn., Oct. 15.—Based on reports from the twenty-nine towns, either partly or entirely wiped out by the five separate fires which raged in Minnesota and Wisconsin, the death toll today is estimated at 1,250 persons. Bodies actually recovered to date 532.

Besides the bodies that have been brought to Duluth, Moose Lake, Aitken and other cities and towns, many others are continually being found in the pits and cellars to which frantic refugees turned in vain for shelter from the onrushing destruction. Whole families have been found to have perished, either burned to death or suffocated by gas in these improvised shelters.

PRIVATE AVNET DIES AT SEA

Mrs. Rebecca Avnet of No. 109 Hone street, received a telegram from the war department this morning, announcing the death at sea of her son, Abram Avnet, who was on his way to France. The telegram read as follows:

"Regret to advise that Priv. Abram Avnet died at sea of pleuro-pneumonia on September 23. Please telegraph Captain John A. Nelson Pier 3, Hoboken, N. J., whether or not you want the remains shipped to you or if you desire interment here. Expense of shipping body or interment at this port will be borne by government. Will you immediately answer."

"W. V. JUDSON, Brig. Gen."

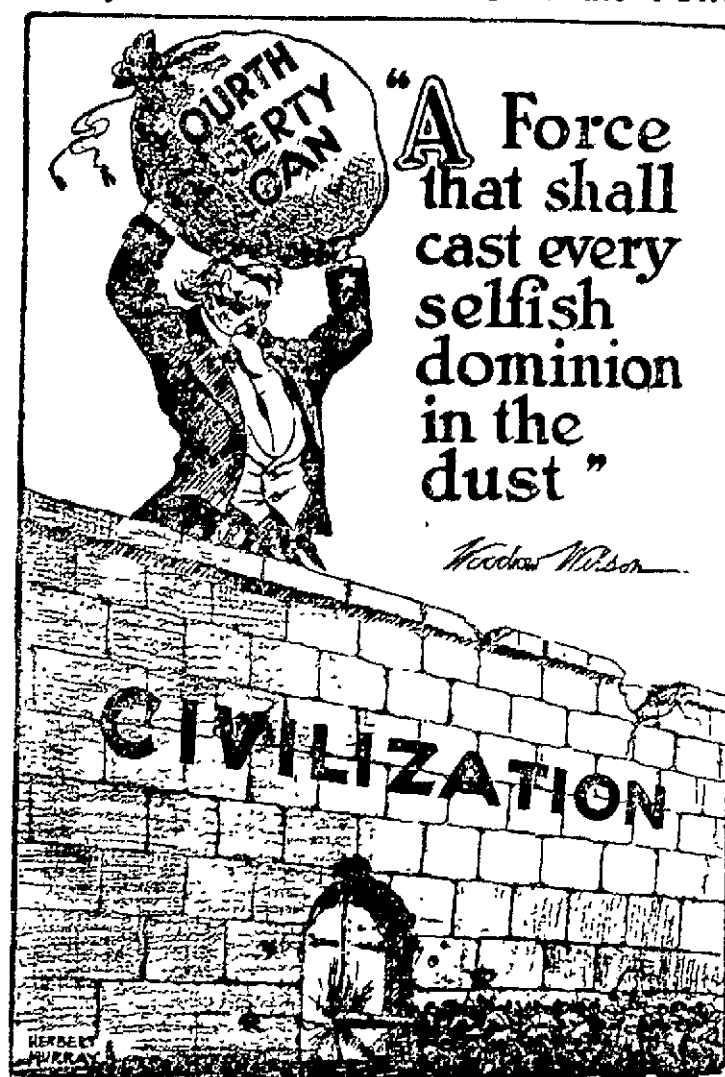

The family has answered the telegram and requested the remains to be sent to Kingston. When they arrive it is, of course, at this time unknown.

Private Avnet was 25 years old. He left here with the contingent for Camp Dix in July. He was a member of the Medical Corps Replacement Unit, No. 28. He was a very popular young man and had many friends here.

The family also received a letter from the Y. M. C. A. stating that all the care and attention had been given Private Avnet, and that his medical treatment was good as any he could have received on land. The letter also expressed deep regret at the death of the soldier and extended sympathy to the family.

TNT Explosion in Canada.
By Telegram to The Freeman.
Toronto Ont., Oct. 15.—One life was lost in an explosion of TNT at the plant of the British Explosives Corporation near Trenton, Ont., 250 miles from here, last night. The number of injuries among the workers was reported as slight because few of the night shift of 2,500 had arrived and there was a short lull in activities. Following the first blast a series of rumbling crashes laid low most of the structures which are less than a year old.

LIEUT. BROWN BURIED AT SEA

News has been received of the death at sea of Lieut. F. F. Brown, who was a resident of Saugerties for four years, in charge of the farm owned by his brother-in-law, Prof. N. T. Quevedo of West Point. He was graduated from the first training camp at Madison Barracks and was commissioned second lieutenant. He spent his 15 days leave of absence at the Saugerties farm with his sister, Mrs. Quevedo, and then went south. In a few weeks he was called back to attend the funeral of his mother, in Saugerties. Lieut. Brown was a veteran of the Spanish-American War, and was 45 years of age. His company commander wrote Mrs. Quevedo as follows in notifying her of her brother's death:

"It is with the greatest regrets and sorrow that I am compelled to write to you and state that your brother, Second Lieut. Franklin F. Brown, died on the S. S. Navassa September 19 at 4:30 a. m. and was buried at sea with full military honors. He was sick just six days with pneumonia and this was too much for his heart, which failed.

The entire command joins me in sympathy, and I personally feel that I have lost one of my very own, as Lieut. Brown was my best officer and was considered by all to be a fine man and soldier and a credit to his family, himself and his country. Your loss is our loss and he died for his country and a greater loss than his own.

Yours very truly,
CAPT. PETER L. KIVILLE,
Commanding Officer,
Co. G, 862d Pioneer Infantry,
A. E. F.

Lieut. Brown was born in Suite City, Montana. His grandparents were pioneer residents of Butler, his grandfather built the first log cabin there, which today stands as a monument to his name.

Stone Crusher Plant Cripped.
Melville Stewart, foreman of the city crusher, notified Street Superintendent Van Buren that the four men employed at the crusher failed to report for duty owing to illness. The superintendent was able to spare only two men from his force to assist at the crusher, as the regular street force is somewhat crippled by illness among its members.

WAR WILL GO ON UNTIL GERMANY SURRENDERS

No Armistice With Outlaw Nation—President Wilson Refuses to Be Tricked by German Diplomacy Into Giving the Enemy Chance to Recupérate.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Oct. 15.—"The big task confronting us now is to complete winning the war."

That was official Washington's admonition today. The nervousness of yesterday, while the nation waited for President Wilson to speak, had disappeared today. The war was to go on. On that point officials were positive. There might be internal upheavals in Germany that would later change the situation. But, for the present at least, the military party was in control there. And the military party will not meet the conditions set down by President Wilson as necessary before any further steps toward peace were possible.

Officials today prepared for further German atrocities as soon as the text of President Wilson's decision reaches Berlin. They expect an immediate renewal of submarine warfare on the largest scale possible to the German admiralty. They expect even worse treatment of occupied territory than has been reported in the past. This has been the order of things whenever the German military machine failed to win its point through a campaign of intrigue. But officials made it very plain here today that such action only will make it harder for the Germans when the inevitable end is reached.

From every section today came endorsement of the president's position. His declaration that the military experts of the United States and its allies will have the say when any armistice is arranged means much to the men who are fighting the war. It means that when Germany does really apply for peace she will be compelled to furnish guarantees that will completely protect the victorious Allied troops. According to reports that have reached here the supreme war council at Versailles has adopted a complete program to that end. It comprises holding of important German centers and for rendering the German fleet impotent while peace negotiations are in progress.

It was expected that the president's reply to the Austrian note would be ready without delay. That is will follow the lines of the German note is certain. But it also will be different. That is to say, officials here feel convinced that the president is willing to go further to aid Austria in ending the war. That nation has not been guilty of the studied atrocities that Germany has. Her submarines have not been so active. Her armies in the field have been a trifle more humane, although guilty of gross atrocities in Italy and Serbia. But there is a decided difference between Austria and Germany in the opinion of officials here and it is expected that in replying to Austria the president will let it be known that she can have a separate peace on somewhat better terms than can be offered to Germany.

So far as the Turkish note is concerned, officials say that the president very probably will communicate to the Ottoman government a note identical with that which he will send to Vienna. Officials here believe that no matter what happens elsewhere the unconditional surrender of Turkey is a matter only of a very brief time. And now that Germany has been unable to get peace at her own terms the Constantinople authorities are expected to follow Bulgaria's lead in every way and save what they can from the wreckage of their national war hopes.

Diplomatic officials here today said that they believed the president's action in again telling the German people that one of the great conditions toward peace was a change in the German government will precipitate anew the political crisis in Germany. They say that this statement can be depended on to stiffen the attitude of the German Socialists. The very fact that the Kaiser has found it necessary to ask the Socialists to take a real part in the government indicates that it was necessary to placate them to get their support for the latest peace maneuver. That having failed officials here believe that the Socialists will renew their demands that the government actually be made responsive to the people. Whether they will be able to gain this point is a matter of serious doubt here at present. But ultimately they will as the German armies continue to suffer serious reverses in the field.

Entire officials were extremely gratified today over the official announcement made simultaneously with the uttering of President Wilson's decision, that there will be no slowing up in the rushing of troops and war materials to the front. That is the sort of language that the Germans can understand, they say. And when they realize that the promises of the general staff that it will have at least four million men in France by June 1 is to be kept it will bring about conditions that will eventually lead to complete unconditional surrender.

NO ARMISTICE WILL BE GRANTED

The text of President Wilson's reply to Germany follows:

From the secretary of state to the chargé d'affaires of Switzerland, ad interim, in charge of German interests in the United States:

"October 14, 1918.
"Sir, in reply to the communication of the German government dated the twelfth inst., which you handed me today, I have the honor to request you to transmit the following answer.
"The unqualified acceptance by the present German government and by a large majority of the German Reichstag of the terms laid down by the president of the United States of America in his address to the congress of the United States on the eighth of January, 1918, and in his subsequent addresses, justifies the president in making a frank and direct statement of his decision with regard to the communications of the German government of the 8th and 12th of October, 1918.

"It must be clearly understood that the process of evacuation and the conditions of an armistice are matters which must be left to the judgment and advice of the military advisers of the government of the United States and the Allied governments, and the president feels it his duty to say that no arrangements can be accepted by the government of the United States which does not provide absolutely satisfactory safeguards and guarantees of the maintenance of the present military supremacy of the armies of the United States and of the Allies in the field.

"He feels confident that he can assume that this will also be the judgment and decision of the Allied governments.

"The president feels that it is also his duty to add that neither the government of the United States nor, he is quite sure, the governments with which the government of the United States is associated as belligerent will consent to consider an armistice so long as the armed forces of Germany continue the illegal and inhumane practices which they still persist in.

"At the very time that the German government approaches the government of the United States with proposals of peace, its submarines are engaged in sinking passenger ships at sea, and not the ships alone, but the very boats in which their passengers and crews seek to make their way to safety; and in their present enforced withdrawal from Flanders and France, the German armies are pursuing a course of wanton destruction which always has been regarded as in direct violation of the rules and practices of civilized warfare.

"Cities and villages, if not destroyed, are being stripped of all they contain not only but often of their very inhabitants. The nations associated against Germany cannot be expected to agree to a cessation of arms while acts of inhumanity, spoliation and desolation are being continued which they justly look upon with horror and with burning hearts.

"It is necessary also, in order that there may be no possibility of misunderstanding, that the president should very solemnly call the attention of the government of Germany to the language and plain intent of one of the terms of peace which the German government has now accepted. It is contained in the address of the president delivered at Mt. Vernon on the Fourth of July last. It is as follows:

"The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly and of its single choice disturb the peace of the world; or if it cannot be presently destroyed, at least its reduction to virtual impotence."

"The power which has hitherto controlled the German nation is of the sort here described.

"It is within the choice of the German nation to alter it. The president's words just quoted naturally constitute a condition precedent to peace, if peace is to come by the action of the German people themselves.

"The president feels bound to say that the whole process of peace will, in his judgment, depend upon the destination and the satisfactory character of the guarantees which can be given in this fundamental matter.

"It is indispensable that the government associated against Germany should know beyond a peradventure with whom they are dealing.

"The president will make a separate reply to the Royal and Imperial government of Austria-Hungary.

"Accept, sir, the renewed assurances of my high consideration.

ROBERT LANSING.
"Mr. Frederick Roddick, Chargé d'affaires of Switzerland, ad interim, in charge of German interests in the United States."

REPLY TO AUSTRIA WILL BE DEFERRED

Situation Differs and Terms May Differ if Austria Abandons Germany—Reply to Turkey Also Deferred.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Oct. 15.—President Wilson's reply to Austria's peace proposal will be deferred. The chief executive will wait until his answer to Germany has been considered by Berlin. The Austrian situation admittedly differs very materially from that of Germany. And diplomats here believe that, if the president will make it plain to Austria that she can have advantageous terms of peace by abandoning the German cause, that will be done.

Officials who know conditions within the dual empire said today that the demand for peace on any terms is growing there. The hatred of Germany and German methods is increasing. As a result there is a feeling here that when the Austrian government realizes that Germany has been denied peace terms because of her autocratic government and her atrocities on land and sea, it will be ready to take steps to abandon the German cause and make a sincere appeal for peace.

Officials today said that the Turkish reply will also be held up for the present. It is believed here that Turkey will surrender unconditionally as soon as the text of the president's reply to Germany reaches Constantinople. In any event, officials are today paying very little attention to Turkey and its present status in the war.

Reports reaching the state department from the neutral countries describe the political situation within Austria-Hungary as "very bad." The opposition to the war is constant, it is increasing there.

It was remarked as "very interesting" that throughout all of the press comment on the war in the German newspapers reaching the state department there is a growing disposition to blame the Kaiser for the failure of the war. This comment is touched on in various ways in nearly every German newspaper that reaches the state department.

When asked why the military command did not suppress these papers, officials who should know, declared that because the belief is all prevalent and manifestly increasing, the command has not dared to act because of the fear that he would only make the situation worse.

Regarding reports of the imminent retirement of Prince Maximilian as imperial chancellor, only neutral press reports on this line have reached the state department.

Owing to sickness among the help at The Huntington, it has been found necessary to temporarily close the dining room to the guests. It is hoped, however, that this condition will be for but a very brief period.

GERMAN TROOPS LEAVING FINLAND

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Oct. 15.—German troops are evacuating Finland, according to a dispatch received by the French high commission from Stockholm this afternoon.

"The general situation in Finland is still very much confused," the dispatch adds, "but what seems curious is that the Prince of Hesse, though he was elected by the diet, will never go to Helsingfors."

U-BOAT ACTIVITY TO BE RENEWED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Oct. 15.—Anticipating Germany's intention to renew her submarine activities on even a greater scale than heretofore, steps are being taken to speed up America's destroyer program.

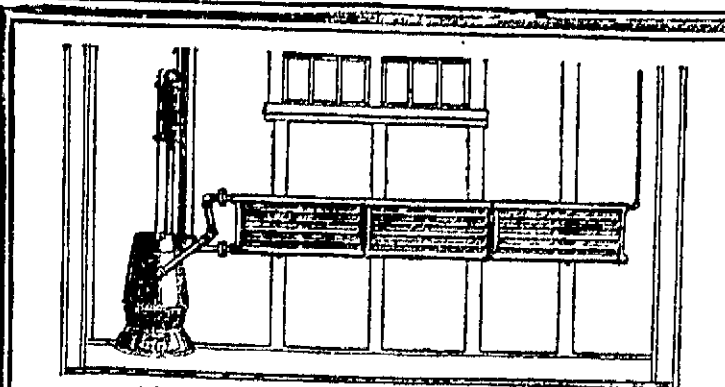

Secretary of the Navy Daniels, with Admirals Taylor and Griffin, was in conference today with the representatives of all shipyards that are building destroyers for the government. This conference was expected to result in the devising of a speeding up program that would frustrate any attempt of the Hun at a successful drive with his undersea craft.

The conference was understood to be the direct outcome of several conversations between Secretary Daniels and Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the British admiralty, who, upon his arrival in this country recently, expressed the belief that Germany was planning renewed naval activities.

War Chest Under Admiration.
Monday evening, Mayor Canfield, chairman of the War Chest Committee, Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck, John D. Schoonmaker, Harry P. Dodge, Francis L. Thornberry, Frank R. Bowley, John E. Maher and Joseph M. Herbert, met at the court house in the interest of the War Chest movement for Ulster county. After a two-hour discussion over the matter, especially in view of the fact that the head of the Atlantic Division of the Red Cross is not in favor of having the Red Cross consolidated within the War Chest plan, it was decided to leave the matter open until another meeting, which will probably be held some time this week.

Red Cross Work Suspended.
There will be no meeting of the Red Cross workers of the Roundout Presbyterian Church until further notice, owing to the grip epidemic. In the meantime, however, members should not lose interest in the work.

SPANISH INFLUENZA--WHAT IT IS AND HOW IT SHOULD BE TREATED

Nothing New--Simply The Old Grip, or la Grippe That Was Epidemic in 1889-90, Only Then It Came From Russia by Way of France and This Time by Way of Spain.

Go to Bed and Stay Quiet--Take a Laxative--Eat Plenty of Nourishing Food--Keep up Your Strength--Nature Is The "Cure."

ALWAYS CALL A DOCTOR

NO OCCASION FOR PANIC.
Spanish Influenza, which appeared in Spain in May, has all the appearance of grip or la grippe, which has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates refers to an epidemic in 412 B. C. which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1831, this country has had five epidemics, the last in 1889-1890.

There is no occasion for panic--influenza itself has a very low percentage of fatalities--not over one death out of every four hundred cases, according to the N. C. Board of Health. The chief danger lies in complications arising, attacking principally patients in a run down condition--those who don't go to bed soon enough, or those who get up too early.

THE SYMPTOMS.
Grippe, or influenza as it is now called, usually begins with a chill, followed by aching, feverishness and sometimes nausea and dizziness, and a general feeling of weakness and depression. The temperature rises from 100 to 104, and the fever usually lasts from three to five days. The germs attack the mucous membrane, or lining of the air passages--nose, throat and bronchial tubes--there is usually a hard cough, especially bad at night, of the times a sore throat or tonsillitis, and frequently all the appearances of a severe head cold.

THE TREATMENT.
Go to bed at the first symptoms, not only for your own sake but to avoid spreading the disease to others--take a purgative, eat plenty of nourishing food, remain perfectly quiet and don't worry. Quinine, aspirin or Doser's Powder, etc., may be administered by the physician's directions to relieve the aching. But there is no cure or specific for influenza--the disease must run its course. But Nature will throw off the attack if only you keep up your strength. The chief danger lies in the complications which may arise. Influenza so weakens the bodily resistance that there is danger of pneumonia or bronchitis developing, and sometimes inflammation of the middle ear, or heart affections. For these reasons, it is very important that the patient remain in bed until his strength returns--stay in bed at least two days or more, after the fever has left you, or if you are over 50 or not strong, stay in bed four days or more, according to the severity of the attack.

EXTERNAL APPLICATIONS.
In order to stimulate the lining of the air passages to throw off the grippe germs, to aid in loosening the phlegm and keeping the air passages open, thus making the breathing easier, Vick's Vapo Rub will be found effective. Hot, wet towels should be applied over the throat, chest and back between the shoulder blades to open the pores. Then Vapo Rub should be rubbed in over the parts until the skin is red, spread on thickly and covered with two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck as the heat of the body liberates the ingredients in the form of vapors. These vapors, inhaled with each breath, carry the medication directly to the parts affected. At the same time, Vapo Rub is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, attracting the blood to the surface, and thus aids in relieving the congestion within.

HOW TO AVOID THE DISEASE.
Evidence seems to prove that this is a germ disease, spread principally by human contact, chiefly through coughing, sneezing or spitting. So avoid persons having colds--which means avoiding crowds--common depression. Keep up your bodily strength by plenty of exercise in the open air, and good food. Above all, keep free from colds, as colds irritate the lining of the air passages and render them much better breeding places for the germs.

Use Vick's Vapo Rub at the very first sign of a cold. For a head cold, mix a little Vapo Rub in a spoon and inhale the vapors, or better still, use Vapo Rub in a benzoin steam kettle. If this is not available, use an ordinary tea kettle. Fill half full of boiling water, put in half a teaspoon of Vapo Rub from time to time--keep the kettle just slowly boiling and inhale the steam arising.

NOTE.--Vick's Vapo Rub is the discovery of a North Carolina druggist, who found how to combine in a simple form, Menthol and Eucalyptus, with such volatile oils as Eucalyptus, Thyme, Camphor, etc., so that when the salve is applied to the body heat, these ingredients are liberated in the form of vapors.

Vapo Rub is comparatively new in New York State and New England and a few Western states where it is just now being introduced, but in the other sections of the country it is the standard home remedy for over a million homes for all forms of cold troubles. Over six million pairs were sold last year. It is particularly recommended for children's group or colds, since it is externally applied and therefore can be used as freely as a cold without the slightest harmful effects. Vapo Rub can be had in three sizes at all drug stores.

HURLEY.

Hurley, Oct. 14.--Many years ago when traveling in the south of Ireland, the writer kissed the "Blarney Stone" and, of course, became endowed immediately with the gift of eloquence. In the course of years, some of this eloquence may have vaporized into the thin "hot air" of the village store. Now, however, he feels that he must have lost absolutely a goodly proportion of this gift, for although the committee has met with some measure of success in securing subscriptions to the Liberty Loan, we are still some distance from the goal of $16,000 the quota assigned to the village. Up 'til now, we have secured 35 pledges amounting to $7,550. Help sustain the reputation of the Blarney Stone and Buy a Bond.

The item in last week's Freeman about our quota has borne very pleasing results and we are grateful. May these items meet with as much reception and results. Buy a Bond.

The slogan of the Farm Journal, published in Philadelphia, is "Farmers at the first table." The farmers of this village--we are all farmers, here--did well at the first table when Liberty Bonds were set forth; did better at the second table; did finely at the third table, where we consumed so much that you will remember we secured an Honor Flag. Now at the fourth table, where Liberty Bonds are displayed, although our appetites may be a little faded, still let us keep at it until we get there. Buy a Bond.

On some of the Liberty Bond posters you will read, "Buy 'till it hurts." Over 12,000 men, over there, up 'till September 10, did their duty in fighting 'till it hurt, so that they died. Our hurt is simply an inconvenience; a touch on our pocket and not on our health. Let us do our duty as they did theirs. Buy a Bond.

A new honor emblem has been issued, a household 100 per cent emblem, where every member of a household has subscribed for this Liberty Loan. The emblem consists of a red circle in which is the legend "100 per cent Household." Come across and get into the circle, and Buy a Bond.

There are a number of men, whose names are on our honor roll in the village church. For some time, their earning capacity here is gone. Sustain their fighting capacity "over there." Buy a Bond.

During the Civil War, a very popular song was, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again, Hurrah." Now, when our Johnny comes marching home again, of course we will should hurrah, of course we will give him a hearty welcome; of course we will slap him on the back; of course we will say "how proud we are of you." But also, be able to look him square in the face and say, "John, we at home, also did our duty." Thus escaping the tingling of the still small voice. Buy a Bond.

Finally, the writer's wife will be so, so glad when the drive is successfully over, for then the writer will be able to pay a little attention to her and her wants. Help her out. Buy a Bond.

If all of the above items do not, or any one of them does not put us at the top, or least near the top, then I have lost faith in the Blarney Stone. Buy a Bond.

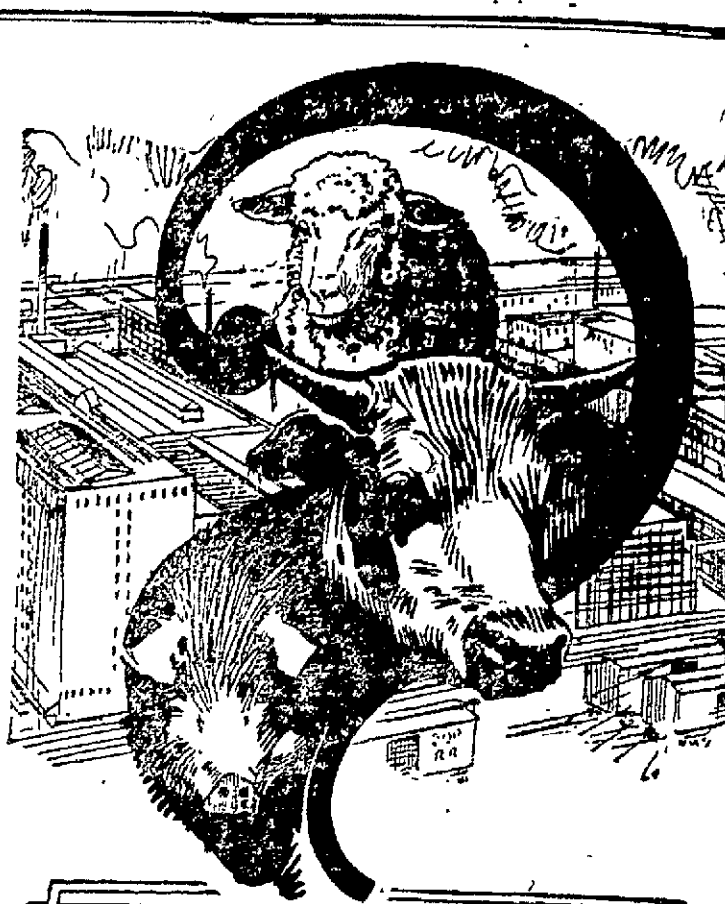

My wife says that these are the very best items I have ever written. Prove it. Buy a Bond.

Why 6-6-6 Rang.

The ringing of the call 6-6-6 on the fire alarm last evening at 7 o'clock caused many to ask the reason for the call. It is explained that the call was sound--in order to call attention to the fact that the Fourth Liberty Loan over the top and likewise to let it be known to the country at large that in reply to Germany's note for an armistice and alleged peace that the people here are for an unconditional surrender and for that only.

Daily Thought.

Nothing is impossible to industry--Peritender of Corinth.

Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes in; let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quietly and at his own price, without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that costs may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in,--and reports of what other concerns are doing.

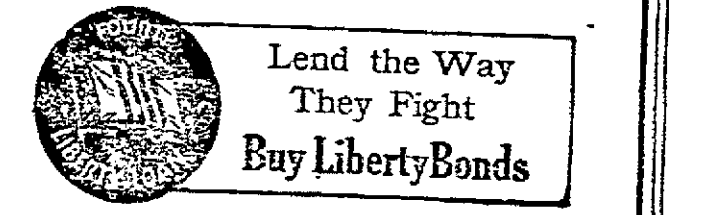

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

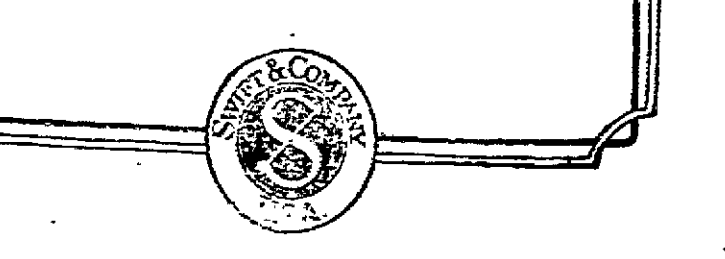

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers drive their bargains to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.

NO STRAPHANGERS ON TROLLEY CARS

The Kingston Consolidated Railroad Company is strictly enforcing the order issued by the state board of health, forbidding the carrying of more passengers than can be comfortably seated. Conductors and motormen have been instructed to make no stops when the seats are occupied. On the Kingston City division the car can seat 30 passengers, while on the Colonial division the number will be 26. This order will remain in effect until the grip epidemic has subsided. Little difficulty has been experienced so far in enforcing the order, as traffic on both lines is light during the day. The only time when the trolley cars are not able to take on all passengers is at a time when the trolley cars are on the boatways. The order also requires that the ventilators and rear door of the cars be open. This part of the order is also being obeyed.

25th Birthday of People's Stores.

The principle that only an enterprise with a foundation for service and square dealing to the people lives on indefinitely, is again demonstrated at the birthday of the People's Chain Stores. The People's clothing organization will enjoy its twenty-fifth birthday commencing Saturday, October 19. Just a quarter of a century ago the People's started their business in the city of Troy and today the chain covers the principal states in the Union. Friday's papers will contain the big advertisement in which special inducements will be offered to the men and women of this city to become acquainted with this concern. In addition it is announced that a 5 per cent reduction from the ticket price will be allowed to all purchasers. The People's local store is situated at No. 291 Wall street.

You Are an Heir.

We like to preach the doctrine of contentment. Now, there is no man so content as the man who is heir to a great estate, and you are heir to the greatest estate that ever was, namely, the whole earth. Once the earth was owned in common by all the people. Well, are you not an heir of the original owners? It is nothing at all to own just a little corner of the world and no more. All of it is yours if you have eyes to see, ears to hear and the heart to feel.—Los Angeles Times.

Signifies Honorary Promotion.

Brevet is a French word meaning commission or warrant. In military usage it gives an officer higher nominal rank than the one for which he receives pay. It is an honorary promotion. The first time it was used in the United States army was in 1812, when Capt. Zachary Taylor, who afterward became president, was made major by brevet for his brave defense of Fort Harrison against the Indians, near Terre Haute.

A CHEERFUL GIVER.

Let those who are dubious as to whether they can afford to purchase more Liberty Bonds during this campaign, as well as those who are deciding how many more bonds to purchase, apply the moral in the little story narrated by a twenty-one-year-old soldier on the steps of the Subtreasury of New York.

He had been invalided home from France. Although he had hardly attained his majority, he had experienced far more than most men experience in a lifetime. Lying upon a sick and looking down upon his audience with eyes which seemed to penetrate every auditor, he said:

"I know that many of you have already bought bonds. You think that you have bought all that you can afford to buy." Here he paused a moment and then in a voice which fairly quivered with emotion he added, "I have lost one leg, but I am ready to go back and give my life."

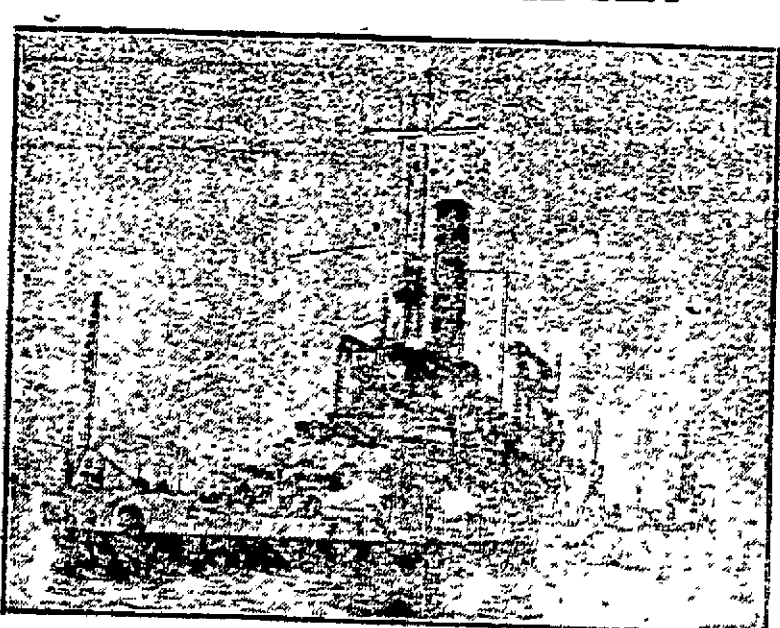

Were it possible for you to go "over there" for the purpose of ascertaining how much to lend to the cause you, too, would return, ready not only to LEND your money to the Government, but to GIVE it to the Government; ready not only to give your money, but life itself.

Part of the Money You Lend Uncle Sam Goes Toward Making Life Comfortable at Front.

Perhaps you will be glad to know that some of the money you will invest in Liberty Bonds—because your boy and the next-door woman's boy are over there—will go for something beside just munitions and equipment. It will no doubt hearten you to know that 20m or Jack or Jim will not be in the trenches up to his knees in mud every moment. You want him there most of the time because that is what you sent him over there for, but you are glad to think, too, of the moments when he is just a boy again, the boy who played baseball or football with the boy next door, even after he had "grown up."

Maybe he is doing that very thing over there—taking a rest period and welding a bat or tossing a ball on the back lot of the recreation camp.

One of the big items in the war bill is an appropriation of $2,000,000 for athletic material.

One wonders if it isn't perhaps the first war in the history of the world where a football, baseball or medicine ball was considered as important in some respects as a cannon ball. They are furnished, of course, to keep the men fit, for only as they can keep fit will they be able to "carry on."

Have No Silly Belief in Luck.

All successful men have acted in one thing—they were conventionalists. They believed that things went not by luck, but by law. Belief in compensation—or, that nothing is got for nothing—characterizes all valuable minds.—Emerson.

Origin of "Torpedo."

The word torpedo is said by the authorities to come from the Latin word "torpere," to be still, owing to its unpropulsive appearance; probably also from its resemblance to the species of fish known by the same name.

FLANDERS FRONT AFLAME IN BATTLE

By Telegram to The Freeman
With the British Army on the Flanders Front, Oct. 14 (Night)—The whole Flanders battle front was aflame with battle tonight and the Germans were retreating over a zone of twenty miles burning villages and exploding stores of ammunition as they fell back.

One of the most gigantic "crash" bombardments of the war accompanied the great Allied assault this morning with thousands of great guns roaring.

The German batteries along the North Sea coast were completely silenced by the hurricane of steel rained upon them from Allied cannon on land and the guns of the British warships.

The British, Belgians and French were still going ahead at last reports, while the Germans were suddenly falling back, putting up desperate resistance.

The German resistance grew weaker as the Allied attack progressed.

Much of the material that the Boches had moved up to the front three months ago had to be abandoned or destroyed as they retreated. Throughout the day the sky was clouded with great volumes of smoke that arose from the artillery and tonight it was illuminated with vivid glares from the firing guns.

The German losses throughout the whole fighting have been extremely heavy. Thousands of prisoners were taken despite the fact that some of the best divisions of the Kaiser's army were on this front.

The Germans, at the opening of the battle, put down a heavy barrage fire hoping to stop the infantry onrush, but French, British and Belgian guns replied and a tremendous artillery duel developed.

At 9 o'clock tonight it was reported that the Belgians alone had captured 2,000 prisoners; had taken Gitsberg, Boveron and Haagebrooke and were advancing south-east of Roulers.

The British were reported to have taken 1,600 prisoners, eleven field guns and two anti-tank guns. The towns of Boschmeln and Wevelghem fell into the hands of the British.

The advance on Menin created a British salient which bulges towards Courtrai.

In Recorder's Court.

Florence Kerr, arrested last Friday for roaming about the streets late at night, and arraigned in city court on the charge of disorderly conduct, was committed to the New York State Reformatory at Bedford by Acting City Judge Shufeldt on Monday afternoon.

Clare Barnes, arrested by Policeman Simpson on the charge of public intoxication, was committed to jail for five days.

Alonso Brazee, of Sleep Rocks, came to town yesterday to procure medicine for members of his family who are ill. Before getting the drugs he procured an overdose of "germ killer" for himself and the result was Policeman Sahloff arrested him on the charge of public intoxication. He was arraigned in city court and pleaded guilty and was fined $1, which he paid.

City Ambulance Busy.

The city ambulance was called three times yesterday to convey patients to the Kingston City Hospital. Each patient was suffering with grip, bordering on pneumonia. The calls were as follows:

Eucabao Gotay, from 22 Ferry street.
Lilian Freeman, from 79 Broadway.
Lawrence Conroy, from 102 Broadway.

Cables Improve With Age.
It is found that the insulation resistance of telephone cables increases with the age of the cable, when it lies in the ground, because the moisture it possesses appears to be dried out.

APPLES KEPT OVER A YEAR

Arthur K. Sheeley, real estate broker and fruit grower, of Cottekill, just used up the last of his last year's apples. These apples were sound and in perfect condition. The most remarkable thing is that these apples have not been in cold storage and have been picked from the trees one year and two weeks and have retained in an ordinary cellar and have retained their moisture practically the same as from the trees. Mr. Sheeley had some prize winning hybrid pears this year, some weighing over 16 ounces. His whole crop has been sold at this writing.

NOW, ALL TOGETHER FOR LIBERTY LOAN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Oct. 15.—"We have got to trouble our efforts this week to fill our quota," said Charles S. Sargeant, Jr., chairman of sub-district five today. "Two weeks of the campaign have gone," he continued, "and we have barely one-third of our quota. We have only five working days left and we must devote every minute possible to selling bonds."

"There is only one way to put the loan over and that is for everyone to buy all the bonds they possibly can for cash and then pledge their future earnings to buy more. Shall we let the Kaiser win here the battles he is daily losing in France? The answer is no and the only way to emphasize that 'no' is by buying bonds to our utmost. The answer is up to the people. Let their reply leave no doubt in the Kaiser's mind as to how they feel."

Sub-district five covers nineteen counties on the eastern side of the state from Franklin and Clinton on the north to Orange and Putnam on the south. Its quota is $69,382,000, of which $23,185,300, or 33.4 per cent had been subscribed up to the close of business on Saturday.

Let's pretend, just for today, that our hearts are free from woe; That the wind blows just the way we would like to have it blow.

Let's pretend that what we do is the work we like the best; Let's pretend the scene we view is of all the loveliest.

Let's pretend we're satisfied; Let's pretend we're brave and strong; Maybe after we have tried, We can do it right along.

A WORD TO THE COOK.
Do you love your work or do you call it drudgery? "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he."

Do you plan to save labor, time and fuel in your cooking? When making a custard leave out the sugar and flavoring, cook it as usual, then divide it into a custard and a salad dressing, adding sugar and flavoring to one, salt and seasoning with vinegar to the other.

When using cooking dishes, if they are washed at once, or put to soak, they will wash much easier and the work that follows will not be hindered.

Coffee is much improved if it has not been freshly ground to stir it over the heat before adding water.

Soup that is stored and dried will last longer than the fresh variety.

Do you plan your meals in regard to the people to be served? For example the farmer, the indoor worker, the child or the invalid, each finding what he needs from the prepared menu.

An emergency shelf with canned fruits, jellies, vegetables, meats and soups is a wonderful refuge in time of company.

Do you try to balance your meals so that there is never an overabundance of any one food principle, as starchy foods or meats?

Are you studying foods and planning new dishes, trying new combinations, and originating new dishes?

Are you studying the food value of milk and do you give your family plenty of this best of all foods?

All fruit juices should be saved to use as pudding sauces or in frozen dishes.

A small-sized baking powder can with holes punched in the top makes a good chopper to use for potatoes while frying.

NEED MAXWELL

William Elmer, one of the oldest residents of the place, died at the home of his son, L. L. Elmer, on Sunday. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Elmer church.

The weekly meeting of the Red Cross Society will be held at the home of Miss Rachel Kelly on Thursday.

Eleventh Official Strike.
Two hundred inspectors of election in New York went on a strike yesterday for a raise from $4 to $50 a day for election days and from $10 to $15 a day for election day. The scale demanded was a raise from $10 to $15 a day, reduced by Mayor Wall and the demand has been put up to this.

A KNIFE FIT ONLY FOR THE GERMANS

Here is one of the trophies in Uncle Sam's museum of a plain cutting instrument he must needs satisfy his blood implements of German Kultur. Evidently the kind of energy with which the Teuton mind is inspired is well represented by the saw tooth on this weapon of savagery.

The one in the picture was taken from a sailor on the cruiser Albatross, interned in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, November 5, 1914.

If a German wants to kill somebody, instead of using implements of German Kultur, he must needs satisfy his blood lust by putting some additional torture into the cut. The best handle in the picture gives another side of the German workmanship. It is labeled "God will win," meaning "God

INFLUENZA HITS
COAL PRODUCTION

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Unless the influenza epidemic "is speedily abated the country's coal supply, which is so necessary for the completion of the war program, will be jeopardized."

Representative William S. Varee, of Pennsylvania, said in the house this afternoon in urging the passage of a joint resolution to create immediately a medical and sanitary reserve corps of the public health service.

Varee read a letter from Director of Public Health and Charles Wilmer Krusen of Philadelphia, in which the latter quoted Acting Commissioner of Health Royce of Pennsylvania, stating that the great anthracite coal regions of that state is in a desperate situation, many miners being stricken with the influenza. Philadelphia alone is so seriously affected by the epidemic, Varee said, that its death rate for the week ended October 11, jumped from a normal of 15 per cent to an abnormal of 95.74 per cent, per thousand of population.

There will be no meeting of C. S. Clay Lodge this evening.

On account of the epidemic it has been decided to hold no meeting of the high school Parent-Teachers' Association this month.

The meeting of firemen to arrange for the H. V. F. A. convention next year, called for Wednesday evening, has been deferred until further notice.

The plant of the Kingston Cooperage Company on Bruyn avenue has been compelled to shut down because of the many employees laid up with the grip.

On account of the epidemic, there will be no rehearsal this evening at St. Mary's Hall for those taking part in the patriotic minstrels. Notice of next rehearsal will be given through the press.

The Women's Work Society of the Wurts Street Baptist Church have postponed indefinitely, because of the epidemic now prevailing in this city, the quilting which was to have been held in the chapel of the church, Wednesday afternoon.

FLANDERS FRONT AFLAME IN BATTLE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
With the British Army on the Flanders front, Oct. 14 (Night)—The whole Flanders battle front was aflame with battle tonight and the Germans were retreating over a zone of twenty miles burning villages and exploding stores of ammunition as they fell back.

One of the most gigantic "crash" bombardments of the war accompanied the great Allied assault this morning with thousands of great guns roaring.

The German batteries along the North Sea coast were completely silenced by the hurricane of steel rained upon them from Allied cannon on land and the guns of the British warships.

The British, Belgians and French were still going ahead at last reports, while the Germans were suddenly falling back, putting up desperate resistance.

The German resistance grew weaker as the Allied attack progressed.

Much of the material that the Boches had moved up to the front three months ago had to be abandoned or destroyed as they retreated. Throughout the day the sky was clouded with great volumes of smoke that arose from the artillery and tonight it was illuminated with vivid glares from the firing guns.

The German losses throughout the whole fighting have been extremely heavy. Thousands of prisoners were taken despite the fact that some of the best divisions of the Kaiser's army were on this front.

The Germans, at the opening of the battle, put down a heavy barrage hoping to stop the infantry onslaught, but French, British and Belgian weapons replied and a tremendous artillery duel developed.

At 9 o'clock tonight it was reported that the Belgians alone had captured 3,000 prisoners; had taken Gitsberg, Boveren and Langbroeke and were advancing south-east of Roulers.

The British were reported to have taken 1,600 prisoners, eleven field guns and two anti-tank guns. The towns of Hoeschmelin and Wervighem fell into the hands of the British.

The advance on Menin created a British salient which bulges towards Courtrai.

In Recorder's Court.

Florence Kerr, arrested last Friday for roaming about the streets late at night, and arraigned in city court on the charge of disorderly conduct, was committed to the New York State Reformatory at Bedford by Acting City Judge Shufeldt on Monday afternoon.

Clara Barnes, arrested by Police-man Simpson on the charge of public intoxication, was committed to jail for five days.

Alonso Brizee, of Steep Rocks, came to town yesterday to procure medicine for members of his family who are ill. Before getting the drugs he procured an overdose of "germ killer" for himself and the result was Police-man Schloff arrested him on the charge of public intoxication. He was arraigned in city court and pleaded guilty and was fined $1, which he paid.

City Ambulance Busy.

The city ambulance was called three times yesterday to convey patients to the Kingston City Hospital. Each patient was suffering with grip, bordering on pneumonia. The calls were as follows:

Eucabao Gotay, from 22 Ferry street.

Lilian Freeman, from 79 Broadway.

Lawrence Conroy, from 102 Broadway.

In several wards the captains have been laid up, and in each of the wards many workers have been ill. It was necessary to leave many residences unvisited because of grip and influenza existing there. Each of the captains reported that his team had returned calls to make at houses where there is illness. All of the teams reported except the Ninth ward team. A supplemental report will be made Thursday night. The Liberty Loan drive will end Saturday. Every household who has not been solicited is requested to go to the captain of his ward and subscribe at once. All workers are urged to complete their canvass.

Cables Improv' With Age.

It is found that the insulation resistance of telephone cables increases with the age of the cable, when it lies in the ground, because the moisture it possesses appears to be dried out.

APPLES KEPT OVER A YEAR

Arthur K. Sheeley, real estate broker and fruit grower, of Cottekill, just used up the last of his last year's apples. These apples were sound and in perfect condition. The most remarkable thing is that these apples have not been in cold storage and have been picked from the trees one year and two weeks and have retained their moisture practically the same as from the trees. Mr. Sheeley had some prize winning hybrid pears this year, some weighing over 16 ounces. His whole crop has been sold at this writing.

NOW, ALL TOGETHER FOR LIBERTY LOAN

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Oct. 15.—"We have gone to trouble our efforts this week to fill our quota," said Charles S. Sargent, Jr., chairman of sub-district five today. "Two weeks of the campaign have gone," he continued, "and we have barely one-third of our quota left. We have only five working days left and we must devote every minute possible to selling bonds."

"There is only one way to put the loan over and that is for everyone to buy all the bonds they possibly can for cash and then pledge their future earnings to buy more. Shall we let the Kaiser win here the battles he is daily losing in France? The answer is no and the only way to emphasize that 'no' is by buying bonds to our utmost. The answer is up to the people. Let their reply leave no doubt in the Kaiser's mind as to how they feel."

Sub-district five covers nineteen counties on the eastern side of the state from Franklin and Clinton on the north to Orange and Putnam on the south. Its quota is $69,382,000, of which $23,186,300, or 33.4 per cent had been subscribed up to the close of business on Saturday.

Let's pretend, just for today. That our hearts are free from worry. That the wind blows just the way we would like to have it blow.

Let's pretend that what we do is the work we like the best. Let's pretend the scene we view is of all the loveliest.

Let's pretend we're satisfied. Let's pretend we're brave and strong; Maybe after we have tried. We can do it right along.

A WORD TO THE COOK.

Do you love your work or do you call it drudgery? "As a man thinketh in his heart so is he."

Do you plan to save labor, time and fuel in your cookery? When making a custard leave out the sugar and flavoring, cook it as usual, then divide it into a custard and a salad dressing, adding sugar and flavoring to one, salt and seasoning with vinegar to the other.

When using cooking dishes, if they are washed at once, or put to soak, they will wash much easier and the work that follows will not be hindered.

Coffee is much improved if it has not been freshly ground to stir it over the heat before adding water.

Soap that is stored and dried will last longer than the fresh variety.

Do you plan your meals in regard to the people to be served? For example the farmer, the indoor worker, the child or the invalid, each finding what he needs from the prepared menu.

An emergency shelf with canned fruits, jellies, vegetables, meats and soups is a wonderful refuge in time of company.

Do you try to balance your meals so that there is never an overabundance of any one food principle, as starchy foods or meats?

Are you studying foods and planning new dishes, trying new combinations, and originating new dishes?

Are you studying the food value of milk and do you give your family plenty of this best of all foods?

All fruit juices should be saved to use as pudding sauces or in frozen dishes.

A small-sized baking powder can with holes punched in the top makes a good chopper to use for potatoes while frying.

Election Officials Strike.

Two hundred inspectors of a election in Yonkers went on a strike yesterday for a raise from $4 to $10 a day for their election duty and from $10 to $15 a day for their salaries—able to do so. Some are so weak that they are reduced by their husbands to a state of helplessness.

URGED TO PROSECUTE WAR WORK SHIRKERS

War Industries Committee of the Chamber of Commerce Urges Drastic Action by the Sheriff--Survey of War Work Resources Being Made in This Locality With View to Greater Efficiency.

The War Industries Committee of the Chamber of Commerce voted at its first meeting Monday afternoon to send out a simple questionnaire to the manufacturers of Kingston and Ulster and Greene counties. Through this questionnaire the committee will secure the information necessary to make an adequate presentation of the resources of this district for war production to the War Industries Board through the War Resources Committee for Region No. 3.

This work is being done in connection with the appointment of the Chamber of Commerce as local administrative agent for Ulster and Greene counties of the War Resources Committee. The War Industries Committee voted to request the co-operation of Chambers of Commerce and other organizations in these counties.

The United States has been divided into twenty regions. Each region has its War Resources Committee reporting to the War Industries Board at Washington. Each region in turn has been divided into local administrative districts with headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce in the largest city of the district.

Surveys are being made in each region and in each district, covering the situation with respect to labor supply, housing, power for manufacturing purposes, existing war contracts and facilities available for war production which are not at present utilized for that purpose.

"The object is to secure an information bureau for manufacturers all over the country, so organized and managed that the manufacturers in all sections may be in a position to work closely with the War Industries Board. One object is to insure to every industrial region its reasonable share of government business. It is proposed by the War Industries Board to send the business to existing plants and labor supplies."

The Industries Committee voted that the Kingston Chamber of Commerce should co-operate fully with the War Resources Committee for this region.

Secretary Hudson was instructed to prepare a draft of a simple questionnaire which, after approval by the committee, will be sent to the manufacturers of Ulster and Greene Counties, in order to secure the information necessary to enable the Chamber of Commerce to present the needs and resources of this District effectively.

The Committee voted to call the attention of the manufacturers to the new War Information Service of the Chamber of Commerce, which includes information about all contracts to be awarded by the Government.

It was the general feeling that a great deal can be accomplished toward further development of the war business of Kingston and the rest of this district by the energetic co-operation of business men through the medium of the War Industries Committee.

Captain Everett Fowler, chairman of the Community Labor Board, and William E. Simmons, chief examiner for the United States Employment Service for this district, were present to confer with the committee regarding co-operation between the Chamber of Commerce and the United States Employment Service.

After a thorough discussion, it was the consensus of opinion that a considerable supply of labor exists in this district which can be made available through efficient development of the system of volunteer enrolling agents attached to the U. S. Employment Service. The committee voted to recommend to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce that the chamber co-operate actively in securing volunteer enrolling agents, whose functions will be to enroll and list with the Kingston office of the United States Employment Service all persons in Kingston and the surrounding territory who are seeking employment. It was brought out that there is a considerable supply of both male and female labor, especially in the surrounding towns.

"The committee resolved to recommend to the New York office of the U. S. Employment Service that an allowance be made to volunteer enrolling agents to cover traveling and other expenses incurred in their work. After discussion concerning the number of persons who are violating the New York state law regarding compulsory work, the committee voted to urge the sheriff of Ulster county to arrest and prosecute all habitual idlers."

The members of the committee are: William H. Van Slyke, chairman; J. C. Klein, William J. Turck, Morris Samter, R. E. Leighton, Louis Beeres and A. J. Burns.

THE LATE JAMES NOLAN.

A Tribute From His Associates in The Freeman Office.

In the death of James Nolan, which is noted in the usual place in this paper today, everyone connected with The Freeman feels a sense of personal loss and sorrow. No more loyal and industrious employee was ever connected with this office and no more agreeable and uniformly considerate and gentlemanly co-worker was ever associated with his fellow employees than was James Nolan. Coming to the office as an errand boy, he gradually worked up through the successive stages of apprenticeship to be not only a skilled linotype operator, but with a general knowledge of the work of a newspaper office that few take the time or interest to master. After repeated attacks of illness, he returned to his work with a spirit of courage and hope that few of us possess, but was finally compelled by prolonged illness from which he never recovered, to refrain entirely from work. James Nolan, boy and man, was one of the very few who never had to be urged to speed up in his work, but on the contrary, many times had to be told to take matters easy and relax in his work. Faithful, industrious, courteous and always considerate of others, James Nolan was a model for others to pattern after.

GLASCO.

Glasco, Oct. 15.—The service flags and Stars and Stripes were put up, both inside and outside of the M. E. Church on Saturday, and the effect is most appropriate and beautiful. The exercises previously intended were omitted, but that part of the program in which the public was to participate, will probably follow some time in the future, due to notice of which will be given.

Mrs. Joseph Becker, formerly Miss Libbie Teitler, of New York city, died on Friday, after a short illness of pneumonia. She was born in Glasco and was the daughter of the late William Teitler. Funeral services were held at their city home on Sunday evening and interment in Trinity cemetery. Services Monday, on arrival of afternoon train about 3 o'clock.

Robert Merzan, who has been employed on a brick barge in the Washburn line, running to Jersey City, came home on Friday sick with the influenza.

George Delaney has given up his job at shipbuilding at the Island Neck in Roseton, and has secured employment on a tug boat in New York harbor. He left here Thursday for the city.

Luther Meier and Benjamin Eliot and wife of Schenectady visited their parents here over Sunday.

Cottage prayer meeting will be held this week on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Henry Teitler.

PROGRESS MADE IN FLANDERS MONDAY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

London, Oct. 15.—The second British army that attacked with the Belgians and French on the Flanders front yesterday advanced over four miles while the Franco-Belgian army advanced nearly five miles. It is officially announced. The German base of Roulers has been captured. Many villages also fell into the hands of the Allies.

The Allies are now within four miles of the great German stronghold of Courtrai.

Eight thousand German prisoners were taken.

The new drive was carried out on land and sea and in the air.

The British fleet co-operated with the infantry, bombarding the German positions on the coast while the Allied armies were attacking on land. Airplanes supported the assaults, also.

The text of the official report follows:

"The Anglo-Belgian army captured 8,000 prisoners. The second British army advanced seven kilometers in their drive on Monday, capturing Rolleghe, Camanelle, Moorselle and the outskirts of Menin."

"The Belgians advanced eight kilometers."

"The French occupied Gaite, Noogede, Gitsberg Plateau, Beveren, St. Joseph and Roulers."

The drive was made over a twenty mile front and its two chief results were:

1.—The German hold on the North Sea coast in the Ostend sector is seriously menaced, if not actually broken.

2.—The Allies have opened a new gateway for their drive southward behind Lille.

Lille, which the Germans have been using as their chief base in the zone just south of the Franco-Belgian frontier, is gradually being pocketed.

The British are within three miles of Denard, which lies immediately north of Valenciennes-Cambrai road.

The British are now within bombarding distance of the Valenciennes-Metz railroad in the north.

P. O. EMPLOYEES HELP THE LOAN

Postmaster DeWitt on Monday, as is customary at the Kingston post office in each Liberty Loan, called the employees together to ascertain their intention as to their own personal subscriptions to this loan. A very enthusiastic meeting ensued. The postmaster reviewed the events on his recent trip to New York where he witnessed the great orations given the president in the New Amsterdam Theatre, at the Waldorf and along the "Avenue of the Allies" during the Columbus-Liberty Day parade. Mr. DeWitt assured his hearers that New York was behind the president and urged upon each the necessity and importance of subscribing now and also getting others to do so. The postmaster then introduced the old and reliable campaigner, Michael A. Meagher, who complimented the post office boys on their efficiency and delivered a short but glowing patriotic address. Mr. Meagher's eloquence had a good effect and brought forth cheers. The clerks and carriers signed up cheerfully and Mr. DeWitt will have a fine report to make for Washington.

Have a Heart, Judge. In the long run an automobilist doesn't gain time by making too much of it in the city limits. The chances are he'll have to do some.

Victor Herbert's Orchestra plays two brilliant numbers

Liszt's "Dream of Love," familiar as a piano selection, is so rich in orchestral feeling that its beauty acquires new lustre played by this famous orchestra. On the same record is a fantastic from "Madam Butterfly," whose colorful vistas, as the playing proceeds, become the beautiful scenes of the opera in one's imagination.
